Current job

Since 2019 I am working as a senior PHP developer at Tradebyte GmbH (Zalando), located in Germany.

I work at the core of the product, some of things we do are for example:

- Adjust to code in every php version upgrade

- SQL queries optimization
- Integration with external services like Amazon S3 and SES
- Code and framework refactor
- Code optimization
- All code is done with TDD and BDD
- etc.

Is also part of my daily taks to:

- Do code reviews of the work done my colleges
- On board new team members
- Participate in projects (what I mean is dont do just development, but also I am involve in the decisions about what to do and how)
